THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRIMATI V. RADHIKA SELVI): (a) and (b) No, Sir. The review of the implementation of the Coastal Security Scheme is done time-to time to monitor the physical progress of implementation of the Scheme. A review meeting of the Coastal Security Scheme (CSS) under the Chairmanship of Union Home Secretary was recently held on 13.12.2007.

Various issues such as physical progress of activities, manpower, jurisdictional issue, hiring of boats etc. were discussed in the meeting. It was decided that each State will prepare a detailed action plan setting time lines for the activities of these various issues under the Scheme.

(c) and (d) Yes, Sir. The inputs from various agencies suggest that several States & UTs j are prone to cross border illegal activities. Concerned State authorities and field formations are sensitized as and when such inputs are received. The periodic comprehensive review of implementation of the Scheme fine-tunes the process of implementation of the Scheme, which aims to curb illegal cross border activities through coastal areas of the country.

Nexus between Jawans and terrorists

1294. SHRI VIJAY J. DARDA:
PROF. ALKA BALRAM KSHATRIYA: SHRIMATI
SHOBHANA BHARTIA:

Will the Minister of HOME AFFAIRS be pleased to state:

whether Government is aware of nexus of Jawans of para military forces with terrorists in the country;

if so, the details thereof; whether the nexus between jawans of para military forces and terrorists are destroying the plans etc. of Government to nab terrorists of defuse their plans; and if so, the strategies to be adopted to ensure that nexus between Jawan of para military forces and terrorists are broken?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (d) There is no nexus between the Jawans of the Central Para-military Forces with terrorists in the country. The Jawans of the Central Paramilitary Forces have been working with full dedication and under extremely challenging and difficult conditions, in counter-insurgency and counter-terrorism operations in various parts of the country, in close coordination with the local police and other security agencies. This has, inter alia, resulted in significant successes in operations against terrorists/militants/ insurgents/extremists. However, there have been a few isolated cases where the conduct of individual persons may have been found to be suspicious which are promptly and firmly dealt with as per the law. It would be inappropriate to draw any generalized conclusions from this.
